

Community College Transfer Student Outcomes Report

Community College Name

John Fink & Davis Jenkins, CCRC

May, 2017

To facilitate discussion on how to improve your institution’s transfer student success at the statewide transfer meeting schedule for DATE, the following report presents results from CCRC analysis of National Student Clearinghouse data on your institution’s transfer outcomes. The first section replicates outcomes described in the report, Tracking Transfer, for your institution and compares those outcomes to national and statewide averages. The second section provides additional data on students who transfer to/from your institution’s major transfer partnerships.

Data Definitions

Cohort & tracking period. Entering FTEIC, degree-seeking community college students in the fall of 2010, excluding current and prior high school dual enrollment students, tracked for six calendar years.

Degree-seeking definition (used by the NSC in Completions Signature Reports). Students are ‘degree-seeking’ if they meet either of the following conditions:

- a. Enrolled full-time for at least one term within 12 months of starting in the fall cohort, OR
- b. Enrolled at least half-time for any two terms within 18 months of starting in the fall cohort.

Transfer definition. Students in the cohort who ever enrolled at a four-year institution for at least one term after their first term at the community college, within the six-year tracking period.

Transfer Partnership Measures:

Community College Name

Note: For the following transfer partnership analyses, the transfer student definition is restricted to those students who directly transferred from your community college to a particular four-year institution and did not enroll at any other institution during the tracking period. This restricted transfer definition is intended to more purely measure the working relationship between transfer partners. For more information on transfer partnership data definitions, see the methodology appendix of the The Transfer Playbook: Essential Practices for Two- and Four-Year Colleges.

Restricted Transfer definition (used in Tables 5-8). Students in the entering community college cohort who directly transferred to a four-year institution and did not enroll at any other higher education institutions within the six-year tracking period.
